AN OVERVIEW OF THE BOOK OF JOB
PART 2

Review of Part 1

- It is impossible to pin-point exactly who Job was, when he lived, where he lived, who wrote his story, and when they wrote it
- The lack of traditional context adds to the universal applicability of the story.

“From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking back and forth
on it”

Be sober, be vigilant;
because your adversary
the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.

(1 Peter 5:8)

Revelation 12:9-10 So the great dragon was cast out, that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was cast to the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. ¹⁰Then I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, "Now salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren, who accused them before our God day and night, has been cast down.

Luke 22:31 And the Lord said, "Simon, Simon! Indeed, Satan has asked for you, that he may sift you as wheat.

A Debate about Job: 1:6-12

God is always in Control

1 Corinthians 10:13 No temptation has overtaken you except such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way of escape, that you may be able to bear it.

2 Peter 2:9 Then the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations and to reserve the unjust under punishment for the day of judgment,
